

Brainstorm

J. LeDoux

It's raining in my brain
I'm feeling no pain
Everybody thinks I'm insane
I'm just on my game
I don't see the harm
Just having a brainstorm

Thoughts are racing, colors are flying
Magic's in the air
Memories are flashing, legs a dashing
Don't have a care, don't have a care

Rain keeps coming down,
Thoughts are more profound
Everybody's staying clear
They hope I'll disappear
I'm not alarmed
It's just a brainstorm

Feelings are fleeting, heart's a beating
No more despair
Muscles are cramped, head's a damp
I'm on a tear, I'm on a tear

Storm's picking up steam
My mind's in a dream
Time's a standing still brrrr I've got a chill
Maybe that's just the norm
When you're in a brainstorm

Thoughts are racing, colors are flying
Magic's in the air
Memories are flashing, legs a dashing
Don't have a care
Feelings are fleeting, heart's a beating
No more despair
Muscles are cramped, head's damp
I'm on a tear, I'm on a tear
