

Imaginate

J. LeDoux

Yesterday I touched you
Today I thought of you
Tomorrow I'll remember you
But after that
What am I gonna do

I'm gonna take a trip
No one else can take
Gonna travel in my mind
I'm gonna imagine

A place and time where things are fine
Where I don't need you all the time
Gonna travel in my mind
Leave your world behind

I still feel yesterday
I'm living OK today
I'm trying to see tomorrow
But after that
What am I gonna do

I'm gonna take a trip
No one else can take
Gonna travel in my mind
I'm gonna imagine

A place and time where things are fine
Where I don't need you all the time
Gonna travel in my mind
Leave your world behind

Leave your world behind
Leave your world behind
Leave your world behind
Leave your world behind
Leave your world behind
Leave your world behind
